In celebration of their debut full-length album release Four Shades, the international music project Atlas Maior presents a colorful evening of diverse music and dance at Esquina Tango (209 Pedernales Street, Austin TX 78702) on December 2nd, 2012, 6:00pm-10:00pm, featuring performances by Atlas Maior, Son Armado & DJ Chill Akilas.

Atlas Maior's Four Shades is a medley of both soulful and driving melodies played on the 'ud (Middle Eastern lute) and alto saxophone, swimming through the water-like waves of the Indian tabla drums and other non-Western traditional percussion instruments. For this event Atlas Maior will feature material from the Four Shades album. Diverse in sonic textures and musical styles, Four Shades balances intimate moments of sincerity with powerful cinematic melodies and incendiary rhythmic grooves.

Atlas Maior is a proud member of the vibrant and emerging world, traditional and international live music scene in Austin, TX. This event will also feature the son jaracho collective Son Armado and DJ Chill Akilas, also integral pieces of the Austin world, traditional and international music and dance community. Together, these artists will highlight a number of dynamic musical traditions in what is sure to be an electrifying Sunday evening!
